

EVIDENCE CONCLUDED IN THE DIEHL TRIAL; ARGUMENTS BEGUN

Defense Only Examined Witnesses Who Testified as to Diehl's Reputation for Peace and Quietness in Community

SUDDEN END WAS SURPRISE TO PROSECUTION

Who Introduced No Evidence in Rebuttal---Court Did Not Limit Arguments---Special Charges Given Before Argument by Request of Both State and Defendant---Judge's Charge Will be Given Wed- nesday Morning.

The arguments in the Diehl murder case began promptly at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Attorney W. H. Miller opening the case for the State of Ohio.

Attorney L. C. Russell, for the defendant, followed Mr. Miller, and the case was closed for the defense by S. L. James. Prosecuting Attorney Phil B. Smythe makes the concluding argument.

Judge Mansfield will give his general charge to the jury Wednesday morning.

The defense rested at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning and no testimony was offered by the state in rebuttal. A recess was taken for about 45 minutes, and as counsel for the state did not wish the opening argument broken by the regular noon adjournment, the court decided to defer this opening until 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

Judge Mansfield also decided not to limit the arguments, as he was assured by counsel that they would be finished in a reasonable time, but rather than have the opening argument of his colleague, Mr. Miller, broken, Prosecutor Smythe stated to the court that he would be willing to close the case at a night session. The other plan, however, was adopted.

The defense in the case began the introduction of testimony Monday afternoon by calling character witnesses, by whom it was sought to be proven that Diehl's reputation for peace and quietness was good, and this line was continued Tuesday morning, 17 witnesses so testifying.

An attempt was made also to impeach part of the testimony given on Monday afternoon by Mrs. Mattie Smith as to certain remarks Diehl made at her home the night of July 8, 1910, after the hanging, but whether her evidence was shaken in the minds of the jury is problematical. The attempt was not followed up to any extent.

The state did not cross-examine but two or three of these character

Philadelphia, Oct. 24.—Christy Matthewson was unable to come back after a full week's rest from his drubbing at New York in an eleven inning game. The Athletics won from him in the fourth game of the world's series 4 to 2.

In the eighth, Matthewson was relieved by Witte.

Bender pitched the entire game for the Athletics and allowed but seven hits. After the first inning he was invincible.

Just to show that he could come back the weather turned out a product today that was of the made to order variety and thus when play was called at two o'clock in the fourth contest of the world's series, Old Sol was beaming on the job just as though he had never slipped a cog. Despite the constant rains of the last six days the field was in fairly good condition.

That the interest has diminished somewhat owing to the long wait was indicated by the fact that the bleachers were not filled until 1 o'clock.

The line-up for both teams was the same as at the last game with the exception that Thomas replaced Lapp behind the bat for the Athletics.

witnesses, and only asked a question or two of them.

After the testimony of John Butte the defendant's attorneys, S. L. James and L. C. Russell, held a conference for a few minutes, and then Mr. James announced:

"We rest, your honor."

It was seen that the attorneys for the state were taken by surprise, as well as the court, and both Mr. Miller and Mr. Smythe stated to the court that the commonwealth had expected to call one witness in rebuttal, John Boyne, but in view of the abrupt ending of the testimony for the defense, they decided that it was not material to do so, and announced that the state's case was closed.

Mr. James said he would have liked to ask Anthony Stare two or three questions, but he was not present, and the court ordered the argument to proceed.

Mr. Smythe asked for a few minutes' time in which to prepare several requests for charges before argument, as he had not expected the case to come to such a sudden close on the defendant's part. A recess was accordingly taken to allow the state's attorneys to prepare these requests.

Judge Mansfield said he would not limit the arguments, and also stated that his charge would be almost identical with that given by him in the Watha case, as far as the general tenor of it was concerned, as this case had been passed upon by the higher courts and had become a sort of model for the other cases arising out of the riot and lynching.

The court gave five charges before argument asked by the state, which were the same identically as those given in all the other cases.

The first described the three degrees of homicide, first, second and third degree, the latter being also known as manslaughter.

The second read:

"If the jury finds that the defendant incited, induced or encouraged

AUTUMN SESSION OF PARLIAMENT

London, Oct. 24.—Parliament assembled today for its autumn session. The principal business will be the consideration of Lloyd George's Workmen's Insurance bill, the most radical bill before the British legislature. Provisions are made for partly compulsory and partly voluntary insurance for certain classes of workmen. With the employers and the state contributing proportionately, it is conceded that the bill will be passed in some form. Opening of the session was accompanied by a cabinet change. Winston Churchill and Reginald McKenna have exchanged posts. Churchill becomes secretary of the navy and McKenna secretary of state for home affairs. Inasmuch as Churchill is politically much stronger than McKenna, it seems queer for him to take an office lower in rank than his old one and one that pays less money. It is believed that Churchill was given the new place to affect drastic economies in the navy expenditures.

STARTLING EVIDENCE DEVELOPS

In Boston Poison Mystery in Which Preacher is Accused of Murder

STATEMENT OF DRUGGIST

From Whom Pastor is Alleged to Have Bought Cyanide of Potassium.

Boston, Oct. 24.—"I believe my son is innocent, but if he is guilty he is no son of mine. The law must take its course." Erect as a dollar and straightening more as he spoke Col. Richeson of Amherst, Va., father of Rev. C. V. T. Richeson, accused of the murder of Avis Linnell, who arrived today from his southern home, declared that if his son should be proven guilty he should go to the electric chair.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 24.—Representatives from the district attorney's office and from police headquarters leave this afternoon for Hannis to examine the body of Avis Linnell for whose murder Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson of Cambridge is held a prisoner. The police desire to secure from the coffin of the dead girl the bathrobe she was wearing when she was found dying in the bathroom of her apartments in the Y. W. C. A. building. They wish to ascertain if the pockets of the robe contain the vial of poison that killed her. If the vial is found in one of the pockets, assert the police, it will either materially strengthen the case against Richeson or will prove his innocence. If a poison vial containing cyanide of potassium is found the police declare the case against the pastor will be complete. If some slower and less deadly poison is found the entire case against Richeson will fall through.

Boston, Oct. 24.—"We will show the grand jury that Avis Linnell met Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson on Saturday, Oct. 14, only a few hours before she took the fatal poison. We believe it to be medicine. We will show that she met a young woman friend after leaving the clergyman and confided that she had been with him. The girl told this witness that Richeson had given her medicine."

This was the statement of Deputy Chief Watts, of the Boston Bureau of Criminal Investigation, who alleged that his evidence proving murder against the clergyman is now practically complete.

"I am innocent and will prove that I am in no way responsible for the awful crime with which I am charged when the proper time comes to furnish such proof," declares Rev. Richeson, from Cell No. 47 in murderers' row, Charles Street jail.

These statements briefly summarize the developments in the remarkable poison mystery which has shaken Boston to its very foundation.

The police are confident that they have sufficient evidence against (Continued on Page 9, Col. 3.)

YEGGS MAKE GOOD HAUL

Sharon, Pa., Oct. 24.—Yeggmen blew the safe in the postoffice at Sharpsville early today and escaped with $2,000 in stamps and $1500 in cash. The safe was totally wrecked and the interior of the building badly damaged. Residents of the town heard the report when the safe was blown, but was attributed to an explosion in gas furnace. The robbery was not discovered until the postoffice had opened. There is no clue.

CHINESE REBELS CAPTURE BATTLESHIPS AND CITIES

Toledo, Oct. 24.—Dispatches from Peking today declare that four Chinese imperial warships under command of Admiral Fah have surrendered to the rebels.

Peking, Oct. 24.—The revolutionary spirit is now manifesting itself in the north as well as in the south. Those who heretofore have believed the northern provinces might rally around the government are now of the opinion that secessions will follow in rapid succession.

The precautionary measures taken in Manchuria, where the government does not permit mention of the revolution, show the anti-government spirit in the far north.

There are persistent reports that risings have been planned for the next few days in the immediate vicinity of the capital. It may be that these will not be fulfilled, but they indicate a widespread sympathy with the revolt.

The diplomatic corps has discussed the necessity of maintaining communication between Tien Tsin and Peking. The military commanders report only sufficient troops to protect the legation quarter in Peking and the foreign settlement in Tien Tsin, which number approximately 1000 and 3200, respectively.

Consequently, in a serious emergency only Japanese would be immediately available from the garrisons at Port Arthur and Dairen.

As yet the legations have not considered seriously the suggestion of an English paper in Shanghai that the Manchus when desperate might endeavor secretly to encourage the ignorant multitude to attack foreigners, and thereby attract foreign intervention, which would militate in their favor, they being the only established dynasty.

It is argued that such machinations will prove more dangerous to the Manchus than any one else, because it is known that the rebel organization elsewhere is able to restrain its adherents. The Manchus, however, are apparently following a weak and vacillating policy, which conceivably might be followed by desperate measures.

A prominent Chinese official of western education, in discussing this possibility, gave it to be understood that precautions against such a maneuver should not be overlooked.

The increase in the activity of the press shows either defiance or relaxation of the censorship, whether from venality or sympathy on the part of the police is unknown. The newspapers publish reports of rebel victories which have not yet been attained and of government calamities more serious than have yet been suffered, and in so doing they are displaying a greater degree of temerity than usual.

PROBLEM IS SOLVED BY COURT

Veniremen Who Believe Building Dynamited But Not Prejudiced May Serve

TRIAL OF M'NAMARAS

May Move More Speedily and the Jury May Soon Be Secured.

Los Angeles, Oct. 24.—Despite the ruling of Judge Bordwell that the holding of an opinion that the Los Angeles Times was destroyed by dynamite is not sufficient to disqualify the defense prepared today to re-frame the issue to secure at least a second ruling on the subject. After examining the exact text of Judge Bordwell's ruling the defense attorneys held an extended conference prior to the opening of court today and agreed to try to qualify the first talesman who intimates that he leans toward the gas theory, thus compelling a positive ruling on this point. When such a proposition is encountered District Attorney Frederick is expected to rule that the belief in the gas theory absolutely disqualifies a juror because it would make it impossible for the state to convict. The defense will then insist that the case absolutely parallel with that of a talesman who holds to the dynamite theory.

Los Angeles, Oct. 24.—Legal machinery in the McNamara murder trial revolved to such effect yesterday that at the close of court a problem which had bothered everybody concerned since the first day of the trial was solved in the opinion of counsel, and five talesmen were excused for various reasons. The half-empty jury box was filled again and only 10 men of the original venire of 125 were left.

By denying a challenge of the defense against Talesman George W. McKee, based on the ground that while McKee had no prejudice against James B. McNamara, the defendant, he believed the Los Angeles Times was blown up by dynamite, Judge Bordwell upset a cherished contention of the defense. The ruling was based upon the court's belief that in spite of McKee's opinion he could and would be a fair and impartial juror. Of this the court is the sole judge.

It was the opinion of the defense, under Attorney Clarence S. Darrow, that an opinion such as McKee held was in itself evidence that he could not be impartial in hearing evidence concerning McNamara, who is on trial for the murder of Charles J. Haggerty, a machinist killed in the Times disaster.

Whether other jurors of McKee's frame of mind would be disqualified, depended, the court pointed out, upon the individual instances and not upon any general ruling.

The defense held that under its contention that the Times explosion was caused by gas, a man ought to believe that theory or none at all, to be an impartial juror, and after the court had announced his ruling, McNamara's attorneys still argued earnestly against it.

Judge Bordwell's ruling essentially was as follows:

Juror McKee testified that he had a definite opinion as to the cause of the explosion and that it would require evidence to remove that opinion.

"He has, however, stated positively that notwithstanding that opinion, which he formed entirely from reading statements in the public (Continued on Page 2, Col. 1.)

SHOT THROUGH COURT ROOM

Zanesville, Oct. 24.—During a session of the common pleas court here yesterday morning, a bullet fired by an unknown person shattered a large window in the court room, throwing the court officials and lawyers into a semi-panic. An effort to locate the shooter failed, and the officials have no clue.

Zanesville, Oct. 24.—Zanesville residents are terrorized by the actions of an unusually large number of thugs, hold-up men, tramps and petty thieves, who have been operating more or less freely during the past week or more. Five hold-ups have occurred in the last four days and the police department seems powerless to capture the guilty criminals.

journal and a public rumor and notoriety, he could not have been this case impartially and fairly upon the matters to be submitted to him.

"I do not think the court is bound by the mere statement of a prospective juror that he could so act. It is question of fact for the court to determine. But, if the court is satisfied from the juror's statement that he can act thus fairly and impartially, the court has no discretion, but must allow that the juror is qualified."

Talesman E. C. Robinson and A. R. McIntosh were excused because of their assertions that they would not render a verdict of guilty in a murder case on circumstantial evidence.

Willis F. Oliver and P. C. Thompson were excused because each was opposed to the death penalty under any conditions.

E. C. Hauser, vice president of a meat packing company, was excused for bias after he had said that his belief that the Times building was destroyed by dynamite was a matter of personal observation. This case differed from McKee's for the reason, among others, that McKee's information was based on indirect information, such as newspapers and common report, afforded. These sources of information are excepted in the statute, but belief founded on personal knowledge or inspection is not.

That the ruling in McKee's case will expedite the task of obtaining a jury was the expression of opposing counsel.

"Think we'll strike a gain soon," said Attorney G. Ray Horton, chief trial deputy of the district attorney's office. "Every day sees the procedure more clearly outlined."

Edward Nockels, secretary of the Chicago Federation of Labor, arrived yesterday and called upon the McNamara brothers. He talked a long time with John J. McNamara, brother of James, and indicted jointly with him for murder. It is said that he brought evidence which he believed of value to the defense.

WELL-KNOWN LAWYER CURED OF ECZEMA

By Cuticura Remedies Which He Recommends for Skin Troubles.

"While attending school at Lebanon, Ohio, in 1882, there was a small-pox scare, and we were all vaccinated. Presumably from impure virus used, I became afflicted with boils, which lasted for about two years, when the affliction assumed the form of an eczema on my face, the lower part of my face being inflamed most of the time. There would be water-blisters rise up, and open, and wherever the water would touch it would burn and cause another one to rise. After the blisters would open, the place would scab over, and when the scab fell off, the place would be almost unbearable at times. In the way the sores would spread from one place to another, back and forth over the whole of my upper lip and chin, and at times the whole lower part of my face would be so sore. This condition continued for four or five years, without getting any better, and in fact got worse all the time, so much so that my wife became alarmed. I was finally cured by Cuticura. I doctored with the best physicians of this part of the country, but to no avail. Finally I decided to try Cuticura Remedies, which I did, taking the Cuticura Resolvent internally, applying the Cuticura Ointment to the sores, and using the Cuticura Soap for washing. In a very short time I began to notice improvement, and continued to use the Cuticura Remedies until within less than a year I was well again, and have not had a recurrence of the trouble since, which is over twenty years. I have recommended Cuticura Remedies to others who have had great faith in them as remedies for skin diseases." (Signed) A. C. Brandon, Attorney-at-Law, Greenville, O., Jan. 17, 1911.

ed others to break into the county jail for the purpose of unlawfully killing Carl Etherington, the defendant is guilty of one of the three degrees of homicide, even though he was not present at the time of said breaking into the jail."

The third: "If the jury finds that Diehl by any act induced or encouraged others to assault Etherington after he was taken from the jail, for the purpose of killing said Etherington, he is guilty of one of the three degrees of homicide, even though he was not present at the actual hanging."

Fourth: "If one joins others of a mob formed for the purpose of committing murder, he is guilty of the crimes of said mob, and makes all the acts committed by it his own, and is therefore guilty of murder if that crime is committed by the mob."

Fifth: "Any one who aids, abets or procures the commission of an unlawful act may be prosecuted as the principal offender, and it is under his section of the statute that this action is brought."

The following charges before argument were also given by Judge Mansfield at the request of the defendant:

Counsel for defendant requested the court, in writing, to give to the jury, before the argument, the following instruction:

Gentlemen of the Jury: The Court says to you that, in considering the testimony of witnesses who claimed to be giving conversations with Diehl, you should carefully consider such testimony, and scrutinize it minutely, because of the length of time that has elapsed since the conversation was claimed to have taken place. The difference of expression which might exist, and the danger of witnesses not getting the language of the defendant as it actually took place, or failing to remember just his words or substance of what was said by the defendant, taking into consideration the time and place and surrounding circumstances.

Counsel for defendant requests the court, in writing, to give to the jury, before the argument, the following instruction:

The Court says to you that under no circumstances will you be justified in returning a verdict of anything against this defendant unless the testimony on the part of the state shows the defendant guilty of each and every element that the law requires to be proven, beyond all reasonable doubt.

Counsel for defendant request the court, in writing, to give to the jury, before the argument, the following instruction:

I further say to you that testimony has been offered on the part of the defendant as to his good reputation for being a quiet, peaceable man; and his goes to you upon the theory that persons of good reputation in that respect are presumed not to be as likely to commit crime as one not having such reputation, and you will consider that testimony along with other testimony in the case.

The first witness called Tuesday morning upon the opening of court was James S. Sheridan.

The state objected to this question, claiming that such a question had not been put to Mrs. Smith when she was on the stand. The defense claimed that it had, and while looking up the record, Mr. James withdrew the question and asked:

"Didn't she say to Boyne, 'Didn't you hear Diehl say he had hit him with a hammer?'" And didn't Boyne say, 'I don't remember it that way?'" And didn't Mrs. Smith say, 'I want you to understand it that way?'"

THE TEXAS LAND CAR

An Object of Much Interest to Newark People.

Many citizens of Newark and vicinity have bought farms and a number are now preparing to move there within the next few weeks. This being the country of winter vegetable crops this fall and winter is the time to plant crops. A crop of potatoes planted in December is ready for harvest in April and should yield 200 bushels to 400 bushels per acre, and the average price of potatoes at this season of the year is $1.50 per bushel, so you can see what can be done on a 10 acre farm and we raise two crops each year. You can raise in Bermuda onions on our land from 300 to 700 bushels per acre that sell on the market at $1.50 per bushel and up. When you think of the coal you have to buy, the heavy clothes and furs that all cost money don't you wish you could spend your winter in our country where you can grow a winter crop and when you are free from the rigorous winter of the north and can enjoy the sunshine and behold the beauties of the flowers that can be seen in bloom in the months of January and February while the residents of Ohio are shrouded in snow and cold, burning up, wearing out and eating up all their money. These are cold facts that are undisputed and there is no argument to confute them. Mr. Hottinger walked five miles this morning to get to our car before we leave and he bought a farm while here, a very practical, sensible thing to do.

Those desiring to take advantage of our short stay in Newark should call at once. Car open day and evening.

FELL INTO HANDS OF MOONSHINERS

Good Samaritan Deed Almost Cost Traveler's Life.

OVERHEARD DEATH DEBATE.

Taken For Revenue Spy, Rescuer of Mountaineer's Little Daughter Was Saved Only by Intercession of Girl's Mother.

SIX of us men sat in the smoking compartment of the Denver bound train telling tales. Five had told their stories, but the sixth proved to have the best of all," says a writer in the Chicago Tribune. The sixth man said:

"Once I found myself in the Ozark mountains, right in the heart of the hills. As I look back on it now I can realize that it was one of the happiest times of my life. I slept under the trees, drank at the mountain springs and cooked any where."

"One morning I came to a craggy sort of tableland on the top of a long, flat mountain. At the rim of the meadow was a quarry."

"And there, running and skipping along the edge, was a little girl. While I was watching her she stumbled and went plunging down the rocky side of that quarry."

"In a few minutes I had reached the place where she lay. Her eyes were open and staring, but it was the stare of a person whose senses are gone. Some blood was pouring from her scalp where a large three cornered piece of flesh was laid back, exposing her skull. I carried her to my horse and then pushed along in the hope that I would soon come to her home."

Held Up by Man With Gun.

"Suddenly a man stepped out in the path in front of me. He was a tall, thin fellow, and he held a rifle in his hand. The first thing I knew I was looking down the muzzle."

"You put that there girl down and wheel your horse around, stranger," he said in his mountain drawl, "and make tracks back the way you come."

"But this little girl is hurt," I said. "I can't leave her like this. I must take her to her mother."

"By and by we came to a log house, and he said that was where the child lived, so I carried her in and put her on the table and went to work doctoring up her poor little head. I'd learned something about taking care of wounds in Manila. The mother stared right there beside that young one, and the father and four other men who came in hung around, talking among themselves and keeping an eye on me. And then, along in the afternoon, the girl came to and knew her mother."

"Then I said I reckoned I'd be morning on and the five men sort of grinned at me and said they reckoned I'd better stay where I was for the night. They put me in an outhouse where corn had been stored."

Sure He Was a Spy.

"I slipped into a sort of doze, but voices woke me, and I could hear the men talking me over. They said they would be the worst kind of chumps if they didn't know me for a spy. I gathered no stranger ever had got up there in their stronghold, and they were determined that none should go away alive. The only friend I had seemed to be the father of Zadie, the little girl. "I fell asleep after a time. About 4 o'clock I awoke, and there those five men still were. I called out to them to let me join the confab, and after awhile they unlocked the door."

"I was looking down the muzzle."

"Of course I know what's troubling you," I said. "You think I'm mixed up with the revenue officers. Well, you're wrong. I stumbled on your place, and I'll hike out and never come again. But if you mean to make an end of me for goodness' sake get to work and make a decent job of it."

"Just then the woman came to the door. She had been up all night with the little girl."

"Jake," she called to her husband in a voice that made all of the men turn around, "I want you to get that man's horse for him. He's going to be let go, you hear? Then she asked me if I wouldn't show her how to dress Zadie's head. So I did. Then the woman gave me some coffee and corn bread, and when I had finished there stood my horse, all saddled, beside the door."

CRAP GAME WAS CAUSE OF THE SHOOTING

Dick Means and George Knox, Both Colored, Lodged in Prison, the Former With Two Bullets in His Body.

Declaring that he would allow no man to punch him in the mouth and "set away with it," Richard Means, colored, broke up a crap game at the Klondike saloon in South Fourth street Monday night about 11 o'clock, went to his home, secured a revolver and returned to renew the fight.

He opened fire on his assailant, George Knox, but before he did any damage, Knox took the gun away from him. In the scuffle for possession of the gun it was discharged twice and the shooter was shot. A bullet ploughed through his thigh and another penetrated his shoulder.

He was finally disarmed and Knox took the gun upstairs, where he left it with other occupants of the house.

According to the story related by Means, the two were engaged in a crap game at the Klondike, when an argument ensued and Knox walked around the table to the chair occupied by Means and struck him a blow in the mouth. Means exhibited a badly cut lip when brought before the court.

Means states that he went to his home and secured the gun and returned to the Klondike, where he opened fire on Knox.

From this point Knox continued the narrative, stating that when the first shot was fired he made a jump for means and grappled with him. He grabbed the hand containing the weapon and the two men struggled for its possession.

Several bystanders joined in the fight for the gun and in the melee two shots were fired, one of which burned through the flesh of his left leg. Another imbedded itself in his shoulder.

Knox succeeded in getting the gun away from Means. He took it upstairs and gave it to a friend, with instructions to keep it.

The police department was notified of the shooting and were soon on the scene. Officers Swinehart and Hurbaugh arrested Means and lodged him in the city prison, charged with shooting with intent to kill. Later, Officers McClure, Slewert and Donley arrested Knox and locked him up on the same charge.

In police court Knox denied any intention of shooting Means, stating that he merely intended to get the gun away from him.

Means admitted that he shot several times, but denied that it was his intent to kill. He was bound over to await the action of the grand jury, his bond being placed at $300.

Knox retained Attorney L. C. Russell to defend him and his case was continued until Thursday morning. He is still in jail.

Means' injuries are not serious and he was able to walk to the patrol wagon, where he was taken to the county jail. Dr. W. H. Kniss dressed his injuries at the city prison Monday night.

and property interest have alike been safely guarded under its provisions. It is not in need of serious emendation. Natural progress and development have doubtless made desirable some changes in the Ohio magna charta, but nothing radical in the way of a change is needed or should be permitted.

To preserve this splendid document in its integrity, and to guard against the fastening of governmental fads upon the people of Ohio, men of character, ability and good common sense should be selected as delegates to the constitutional convention. Under the law, anyone who can secure the required number of signatures to a petition may become a candidate for a seat in the convention. The probabilities are that in the various counties there will be many candidates in proportion to their respective populations. The responsible voter will do well to consider the character and ability of the applicant before signing a petition, and will do still better by carefully scanning his ballot at the polls in November, and voting only for men who have the general welfare and interest of the people at heart. It is time for vigilance and activity.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The Recall in Seattle.

The business men of Seattle are in rebellion against the application that is being made of the recall in that city. Aside from all abstractions, it appears to be used principally in Seattle as a bludgeon for the settlement of private and political scores. Worse still, it seems to have become a convenient and a favorite weapon for malcontents. Elections settle nothing, for the minority has it with its power at least to threaten, and to keep on threatening, to overthrow the will of the majority. A mayor elected last February was scarcely installed before a movement to oust him was set afoot. There is an element in every large and growing city like Seattle that is highly entertained by public agitation and social and business disturbance, but until recently no community has thought it advisable to place instruments that might easily be employed for destructive purposes in the hands of this element.

Manifestly conservative Seattle has become tired of the whole performance. It is demanding, and properly, a return to sanity, safety, stability, in this as in many previous instances of a similar character, thoughtless, impetuous, reckless radicalism brings a reaction that checks the general progress of political and economic reform.—Christian Science Monitor.

THE SINGLE TAX.

The underlying motive for the initiative and referendum, is the single tax. This is admitted by W. S. U'Ren of Oregon City, Ore., the man who is responsible for many of the Oregon reforms, who says:

"We have cleared the way for a straight single tax fight in Oregon. All the work we have done for direct legislation has been done with the single tax in view, but we have not talked single tax, because that was not the question before the house. Now that question is before the house in Oregon and we will discuss it."

"In that state, since we first began our work with the single tax as the goal in view, we have confined ourselves to the questions to be voted on at the next election. To do otherwise is to confuse the voters."

"The Joseph Fels fund commission began its work with the definite aim to put the single tax into operation somewhere in the United States within five years, and it will succeed in that work."

FIFTY MILLIONS FOR GOOD ROADS

National and State Aid To Be Demanded by Ohio Federation.

ALLIED ORGANIZATIONS TO HELP

The Constitutional Convention to Be Requested to Amend the Constitution So That the State May Issue Bonds to One Per Cent of the Grand Duplicate—An Educational Campaign By the Federation.

Not for many years have the supporters of bigger and better things in the matter of roads had such bright prospects as at the present time. At the annual meeting of the Ohio Good Roads Federation, held October 12 at Parlor B, Chittenden hotel, Columbus, O., there were present representatives of the various allied county organizations, together with officers of farmers' granges, automobile clubs, business men's clubs, boards of trade and manufacturers' organizations throughout the state. Addresses were made by the officers of the Federation, together with reports from the treasurer and secretary.

The following resolution was offered and unanimously adopted: Resolved, That the Ohio Good Roads Federation endorse the proposition to secure a constitutional amendment, permitting the state to issue bonds for state aid to road construction, and that the officers of the Federation be authorized to inaugurate a campaign to secure both the submission and adoption of such amendment to the constitution of Ohio; and, further, be it

Resolved, That the Federation be instructed to act in conjunction with the American Association for Highway Improvement and other organizations to secure federal legislation and appropriations to the several states for aid in the building and maintenance of roads.

Officers.

The following officers were chosen for the ensuing year:

President, Arch H. Huston, Columbus; 1st V. P., D. F. Humphrey, Cleveland; 2d V. P., Walter Braun, Columbus; 3d V. P., A. H. Noah, Akron; 4th V. P., A. P. Sandles, Ottawa; 5th V. P., Geo. H. Smith, Chillicothe; 6th V. P., S. E. Strode, Gallon; Secretary, Jesse Taylor, Jamestown; Treasurer, Julius F. Stone, Columbus; State Supt., W. A. Alsdorf, Johnstown; Counsel, Smith W. Bennett, Columbus.

Board of Trustees.

W. A. Alsdorf, Johnstown; L. S. Bixler, Kenton; Will P. Blair, Cleveland; O. J. Demuth, New Philadelphia; Thos. Henderson, Cleveland; D. S. Humphreys, Cleveland; Arch H. Huston, Columbus; O. S. Kelly, Springfield; Geo. W. Lattimer, Columbus; James R. Marker, Greenville; Lawson F. Moores, Cincinnati; Allen Patterson, Lima; Richard Sinclair, Columbus; Julius F. Stone, Columbus; Jesse Taylor, Jamestown; E. M. Fullington, Columbus; Norman E. Aaby, Columbus; Dr. C. L. Bonfield, Cincinnati; Fred. C. Wood, Cleveland, Wm. Strook, Dayton.

All present seemed to realize that in the coming constitutional convention a great opportunity is afforded the people of Ohio to advance their commerce, industry and social conditions, by providing for a system of improved roads throughout the state.

The Federation takes the ground that the investment of fifty millions in good roads throughout the state will bring larger and quicker returns in increase of business, greater development of natural resources, increased value of farm lands, better health and improved moral conditions for the people of the state, than any other similar investment that can be made by the state or national government. The Federation will endeavor to keep clear of entanglements with other questions before the constitutional convention, believing that the people are a unit in their request for a change in methods relative to the treatment of the road problem of the state.

The educational feature of the work of the Federation will receive considerable attention this coming winter. They will endeavor to have a representative at all county meetings called by the state highway department, in which the method and type of construction of the various county roads will be discussed. Effort will be made to improve all roads of different type throughout the state, and to stop the waste resultant from antiquated methods of construction, and wilful neglect of the maintenance of roads throughout the state. The legislative problems will not be brought into the campaign this year for the reason that there will not be a session of the general assembly until 1913, and the discussion of legislative enactments would only complicate the greater problem of the constitutional amendment.

The propaganda certainly is one that interests every citizen of the state, whether country man or city man, for, in addition to stimulating all industries in the state, it will be a powerful incentive if realized to keep the rising generation on the farm instead of following the lure of the city, thus helping to solve the most menacing of all sociological conditions. The plan is both practicable and feasible and should receive the earnest support of the people of the state.

FIVE WATCHMEN HAVE TROD NEAR MILLION MILES

The oldest track-walker in point of service on the Pennsylvania, Geo. A. Burns, a Pennsylvanian, has just put his 177,000th mile behind him. In keeping vigil over the track placed in his care, he has walked in the last 35 years a distance equivalent to seven and a third times around the world. Journeying four times a day between Greensburg, Pa., and Youngwood yard, a distance of 3.53 miles, he has inspected 5,726,800 splice plates on half as many rail joints, necessitated by the watch for spreading rails.

Other Pennsylvania track watchmen have some long records. Wm. Young, Franklin, Pa., has walked in a little less than 23 years 154,144 miles; Dennis Watters, Norristown, Pa., in 24 years has traversed 111,625; Simon Owens of Washington, D. C., and Julius Hein of Edgewood, Md., who have both served their company over 23 years, have tramped over 135,636 and 101,100 miles of rail, respectively. Together, these five men have traveled afoot near a million miles in pursuit of their daily duties.

Track inspection on this road is reduced to an exact science. A patrolman registers in the tower at the end of his beat, the hour and minute of his arrival; departs on his journey and registers in a similar way at the tower on the other end. He carries a registering clock, by which his trips can be checked to the minute. His route usually covers four miles, but is less than half that distance on stretches where special watchfulness is needed. At night the inspector has only the light of his lantern to work by, but he must see that every frog switch and signal is in good order.

He has other things to watch also, besides the area between rails. If a nearby tree looks dangerous, he must report so that it may be chopped down. An overhanging rock may become loose. The track-walker must know about it in time to prevent a possible accident. The wash of waters must be looked after. Road crossings must be examined for danger to teams as well as trains. Other things that demand a vigilant watch are outlying water stations, overhead wires and even the cattle loose in adjoining fields.

Some of these pedestrians are on the job every hour in the 24 to smooth the path for the hurrying millions gliding over the rails.

RADICAL CHANGES IN CONSTITUTION NOT NEEDED

It may not have attracted general attention, and from the general indifference of the public to the subject, it may matter little, but as a matter of fact the only persons who seem to be concerned about the coming constitutional convention in Ohio are those who want to put something into the organic law. This class is organizing with greatest care and is insidiously spreading abroad a propaganda for isms of various kinds which it hopes to engraft upon the present constitution. There is little or no discussion relating to the excision of any part of the organic law of the state.

Ohio has got along fairly well for more than half a century under the present constitution. It has been a bulwark of safety and protection to the people of the state. Human life

Purse Versus Passport in Russia.
Should a citizen of the United States attempt to enter Russia without a passport he would be turned back at the frontier. Should he arrive in Russian waters he will not be permitted to disembark until he has produced the necessary document, properly vided by a Russian consular or diplomatic officer. Indeed, the mere possession of an American passport is not sufficient, for the regulations of the Russians prescribe that the credential must be vided before the frontier is crossed. Better to lose one's purse than one's passport in Russia. Funds may be cable for and received in the course of a few hours, but it is a question of weeks where a passport is concerned. Russian officials are usually courteous to American visitors who do not display too much curiosity about certain unspeakable Russian institutions, but let them find a traveler in the interior without a passport and the luckless one will speedily see the inside of a Russian jail, and sooner or later be conducted to the nearest point of the frontier.—Travel Magazine.

Women's Secrets

There is one man in the United States who has perhaps heard more women's secrets than any other man or woman in the country. These secrets are not secrets of guilt or shame, but the secrets of suffering, and they have been confided to Dr. R. V. Pierce in the hope and expectation of advice and help. That few of these women have been disappointed in their expectations is proved by the fact that ninety-eight per cent. of all women treated by Dr. Pierce have been absolutely and altogether cured. Such a record would be remarkable if the cases treated were numbered by hundreds only. But when that record applies to the treatment of more than half-a-million women, in a practice of over 40 years, it is phenomenal, and entitles Dr. Pierce to the gratitude accorded him by women, as the first of specialists in the treatment of women's diseases.

Every sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, absolutely without charge. All replies are mailed, sealed in perfectly plain envelopes, without any printing or advertising whatever, upon them. Write without fear as without fee, to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Prest., Buffalo, N. Y.

COURT NEWS.

Common Pleas Court.
In the case of T. S. White vs. W. P. Weant, et al., assigned for trial today, judgment of settlement entered. This is a suit on account.

John Amicon Brothers & Co., vs. John Strawn, judgment of dismissal for failure to give security for costs.

The Common Pleas Court was engaged Wednesday in the trial of the case of W. A. Yeach vs. Cochran & Johnson, being a controversy over the supply of water to Idlewild Park in the year 1907. After the jury were sworn and the case stated, Kibler and McDonald, attorneys for defendant, made a motion for judgment in behalf of the defendants, but on motion of the plaintiff the court granted him leave to amend his petition upon payment of the costs and a juror was withdrawn and the cause continued.

In the case of the Kirkpatrick Construction company, vs. the Jewett Car company, the defendant filed a motion to the petition and also a cross petition, claiming judgment against the plaintiff company on behalf of the Jewett Car company, in the sum of $5500.00 with interest from 1909, which it claims for the manufacture of cars delivered to plaintiff and for which plaintiff failed to pay. Kibler & Kibler are attorneys for the Jewett Car company.

In the case of the Memorial Hall trustees against the bondmen of W. D. Harris to recover Auditorium rent under the Harris lease, the Common Pleas Court overruled the demurrer which the defendants filed to the plaintiff's petition, the court holding that Harris was not a necessary party to the case. Leave was given the defendants to file an answer within thirty days. Flory & Flory represent the defendants, and Kibler & Kibler the plaintiffs.

Answer to Petition.
In the case of Mary Lotzia vs. Paul Lotzia, suit for divorce in Probate Court, the defendant, by his attorneys, Smythe & Smythe, has filed an answer to the petition in which he denies all the charges made.

Probate Court.
The will of Christian Magley, deceased, of Etina township, was admitted to probate, and George Magley was appointed administrator with the will annexed. Bond, $1,200.

Susie B. James has been appointed executrix of the will of Mary C. Coad, deceased, of Washington township. Bond, $6,000.

Frank A. Owens has been appointed guardian of Carl Brown and others. Bond, $200.

The divorce case of Frances Sachs against Emil Sachs is being heard before Judge Hunter this afternoon.

The Sugar Vice and Its Ills.

LOTS of us condemn the cigarette habit, and point to the long list of ills that follow in its train, when perhaps all the time we ourselves are indulging in a habit almost as injurious—the intemperate eating of sugar. With the American people, the eating of sugar is almost a vice. Many are suffering from physical ills, directly traceable to the wrong consumption or over-consumption of sugar. So that those who want to keep their health up to par had better study a little this very ordinary article of diet, and not condemn those who use cigarettes inordinately, if they themselves are eating sugar unrestrainedly. For sugar can be a foe quite as deadly as the cigarette.

The system needs sugar in its digested form, for it is this that furnishes energy and heat. So that it is very essential that we give the system sugar properly. And it is this idea that leads people to give children, particularly, plenty of sugar. Because, argue they, the children by reason of their energy-consuming activity need it. But there is a right way and a wrong way for the system to receive sugar. And judging by the prevalence of certain diseases, most of us take sugar in the wrong way.

The word sugar means to the majority of us the sugar used on the table for sweetening tea and coffee, and in the kitchen for pies and pastries. But this is cane sugar, and only one of the many forms in which sugar appears in our food. We take sugar into the system in many guises; and all, including the cane sugar, must be transformed by the digestive processes into levulose or grape sugar before it can be assimilated. Starch, which comprises the large bulk of our food, in that it is the chief constituent of potatoes, rice, the cereals, and all such food, must become grape sugar before it enters the body as nourishment. So you see, we are not dependent upon the so-called sugar of commerce for the sugar that enters the body.

The digestion of both the starch foods which ultimately become sugar, and cane sugar itself, begins in the mouth, is in abeyance in the stomach, and proceeds again in the intestines. If now, because of hasty eating, this digestion does not commence, the starch lies in the stomach an undigested mass, and the cane sugar sets up a fermentation. Sugar, candy, and sweets whose chief ingredient is cane sugar, because they are easily soluble are rarely sufficiently mixed with the saliva to have this first, and very necessary, process of digestion started. Hence, a condition of a sour or acid stomach ensues with all its resultant ills.

This is perhaps the first harm done to us by the wrong eating of sugar. Then when these sugar elements reach the intestines, their digestion is again taken up. But they can only be digested as fast as they are absorbed. Now the system needs only so much sugar, and when it has enough, it stops absorbing. But we go on eating sugar in one form or another, and so it accumulates, undigested, here in the intestines, and gives rise to many most serious diseases. Some of the gravest ills from which we suffer have their beginning from this very cause. And that is the reason the sugar habit of the American people is becoming as injurious in its way as the cigarette habit. We consume quantities of candy, sweet drinks, pastry, ices, in all of which is cane sugar. And we consume them in such a way that this cane sugar rarely has any chance whatever for digestion in the mouth. Hence it causes acid stomach, catarrh, and numerous ills of this nature. But along with sweets of this character, we consume quantities of starchy food which must ultimately become sugar; and thus the system is overstocked with sugar, and we have diabetes and serious liver troubles.

We need to thoroughly insalivate both cane sugar and starchy foods in the mouth; and we need to eat no more sugar than the system needs, if we wish to have that abounding health that makes living a joy.

MINISTERS AND LAYMEN UNITED

Work Harmoniously for Great Religious Revival.

BIG MEETING AT COLUMBUS

Fred B. Smith, National Campaign Leader, and Other Men Prominent in "Men and Religion Movement" Will Be Present to Explain Objects of Organization—Hope to Settle Economic Problems by Application of Christ's Teachings.

The North American continent is now the scene of a movement of men for religious purposes of a most unusual sort. The "Brotherhoods" of ten denominations, the International Sunday School Association, and the International Y. M. C. A. have joined hands in a plan of work, modern in type, wide in scope and embracing much work not always classed as religious. This movement is known as "The Men and Religion Forward Movement." It is not a ministers' movement nor is it a laymen's movement, but it is a movement of both. Both ministers and men of the pew unite, without special distinction or thought of difference, to bring about a big moral, social and religious advance.

An editorial recently in the Indianapolis Sun says:
"In speaking of the Men and Religion Forward Movement we have already expressed the hope and belief that it will succeed, because it seeks to make religion practical instead of theoretical. It is a movement, in short, to make the teachings of Christ applicable to the Copyright by Harris & Ewing.

FRED B. SMITH.
everyday problems of this day—problems that are moral and religious by right, but which have been shoved off upon the shoulders of secular organizations to solve—or else have gone unsolved by default."

The Social Service department of "The Men and Religion Forward Movement" is here referred to, but the other lines are those of Boys' Work, Evangelism, Bible Study, and Missions. The plan is to arouse, train and enlist the men and older boys of the American churches along all of these lines, giving each man and boy some definite work to do and teaching him how to do it well.

Mr. Fred B. Smith the national campaign leader, is the world's greatest evangelist to men and a man of unusual power. The Y. M. C. A. has given him to the new movement. Other men, specialists in various lines, will help. Rev. Charles Steble, Rev. Isaac J. Lonsing and others in Social Service; W. C. Pearce, F. S. Goodman in Bible study, and a long list of leaders in the departments of work mentioned.

Columbus, O. is one of seventy-six centers of work for this season, and an eight-day campaign covering all the five lines of effort will be conducted Nov. 13-20. A team of the national experts will be present, together with Fred B. Smith and the International Male Quartet. Columbus has organized a Committee of One Hundred and in the twenty-eight counties of the Columbus district many towns have already organized co-operating movements and will send delegates to the convention of Christian men interested in Men and Religion. Two days of the Columbus campaign, Nov. 14-15, will be convention days, and all of the national experts present will be heard. The presence of J. A. Whitmore, Isaac J. Lonsing, W. R. Lane of London, England; W. C. Pearce and Charles R. Drum will make it a great occasion. Pastors of all churches and any man interested can learn of the movement through Mr. L. B. Braddock of Columbus, who is Executive Secretary. Rev. Herbert Scott is chairman of the Columbus committee.

Many men who have not been conspicuous in religious work before and magazines of worldwide circulation and daily papers are giving already an unusual amount of attention to the Movement because it is a new emphasis on vital and practical Christianity. It is new in method and yet retains the old fine spirit of devotion, which it translates into terms of present-day need and life.

Test For Stutterers.

A new method of voice control was tried by the lifelong stutterer. In a few lessons the impediment in speech was overcome.
"That's fine," said a candid friend. "Now I wish you would take a bit of advice. You talk all right today, but just keep a watch on yourself and see how you talk this time next week."
"You're a wet blanket, all right," growled the ex-stutterer. "What's the matter with next week?"
"We'll be in the full moon, then," said his friend. "It's a fact that everybody who has ever stuttered stutters worse when the moon is full than at any other time. Until you get so you can talk smoothly then you can't count yourself really cured."
The man with halting speech took notice, as advised, and found that several full moons waned before he could control his speech at that time. —New York Times.

Verifying His Statement.

Old Mr. and Mrs. Smiley were giving their annual party, and Mr. Smiley was making his usual speech.
"For forty years have my good wife and I traveled hand in hand down life's thorny path," he said. "In all those years not one single harsh, hasty, unkind word has passed our lips. Isn't that true, mother?"
"Mother" had quietly fallen asleep on the sofa, and as he laid his hand caressingly on her shoulder she snorted derisively and said sharply:
"Get up yourself and light the fire, Sam. I lit it last, and I'll see you far enough before I'll do it this morning, you— Oh, oh, I—I—why, I must have dropped off to sleep!"
"And I think you'd better have stayed asleep, Lily," missed Samuel into her ear.—London Tit-Bits.

Coffee and Fatigue.

The question is often asked, What will relieve fatigue more quickly than anything else? Clerks in stores and men generally, as well as women shoppers, become at times very tired. Fortunately the British army has thrashed the question out and tried every kind of decoction that could be thought of, and we may profit by its experience. It awards the palm to coffee and declares it has neither superior nor equal for this purpose.—Indianapolis News.

Growing Pains.

Never ignore "growing pains." Many people seem to think they are perfectly natural and, in fact, that they are a necessary part of growth. As a matter of fact, they are sometimes an indication of a strong tendency to rheumatism, and a child who complains of them should wear wool next the skin always, though lighter, of course, in summer than in winter, and be properly treated by a doctor.

Daddy's Bedtime Story

Bonny Bear Gets A Fisherman's Apple Pie

MR. PROUTY has been fishing again, and he brought home a brand new story which he told me to be sure to tell you," announced daddy.

The children laughed. Jolly Mr. Prouty was a favorite of theirs, and if he had a story for them they knew it would be something funny.

Mr. Prouty goes fishing in Maine, way out in the woods, you know. "Well, Mr. Prouty did so finely the first day that the second day he told the lady at the boarding house that he thought he would go out without her son. The lady didn't seem pleased, and I dare say she wasn't pleased, for Mr. Prouty had to pay her extra money when her boy went with him to show him the good fishing places.

"Mr. Prouty couldn't find the place where he had fished the day before, but he found a real nice place, with a rock that ran out over the lake, and he sat down and baited his line and sank it into the water. He caught a fish, and then he caught another. He was so interested that when he heard some one come through the bushes he didn't look around—just said, 'Hello, there!'

"I'm doing finely," said Mr. Prouty. Then he thought he heard a grunt, but still he didn't bother looking around, being so much taken up with watching his line. The lunch basket was back of him on the rock.

"I say, old man, will you hand me a sandwich?" called Mr. Prouty, for he was beginning to be hungry. There was no answer. Then Mr. Prouty looked over his shoulder. What do you think he saw? Why, a big black bear nosing around the lunch basket, which it had partly opened. Scared? Indeed he was. Mr. Prouty didn't dare to go back along the rock, for he would have had to pass the bear, so he yanked off his shoes, jumped into the lake and swam as far as he was able before making for the shore.

"He made his way home as well as he could, and when he painted out the story of his frightful meeting with a black bear the landlady just laughed. Her son laughed. So did all the boarders who happened to be about.

"Then the landlady's son went out and brought in the bear. Bruin came walking sheepishly home at the end of a rope, his face smeared with apple pie and jelly. He had had a glorious treat out of Mr. Prouty's lunch basket.

"You see, he was a tame bear, not much but a cub, which the landlady's son had got from a hunter when the animal was not more than a few weeks old. Bonny, as the bear was called, was as peaceful as a lamb and as friendly as a pet kitten. Generally he was kept tied, but that morning he had escaped. He wore a handsome collar, on which was his name. Mr. Prouty said that after that he never went fishing alone."

The workmen began to lay track on the new street railroad at the corner of Cedar and Main streets yesterday. Mr. Cary Noe of the western part of the county, was accidentally shot and killed.

Why should you continue to experiment with salves, greasy lotions and fancy hair dressings trying to rid your scalp of germ life. They can't do it because they cannot penetrate to the seat of the trouble and draw the germ life to the surface of the scalp and destroy it.

Why not try a PROVEN REMEDY? One that will do this. We have a remedy that will rid the scalp of germ life and in this way will cure DANDRUFF and ITCHING SCALP.

This remedy is ZEMO, a clean, refined, penetrating scalp tonic that goes right to the seat of the trouble and drives the germ life to the surface and destroys it.

The Female Hoof. A female horse fly which has hibernated in a produce house, or elsewhere, may produce in the spring, at the lowest estimate, 120 eggs. Assuming that one-half of these hatch as females, and allowing that the breeding goes on without check for four months, we have as the descendants of a single hibernating individual 214,537,844,320, 000,000,000 flies. Now, a bottle fly measures exactly one-fourth of an inch in length; the distance around the earth at the equator is said to be 24,800 miles. It would take, therefore, 3,088,312,000 flies placed end to end to go around the world once. Using this number as a denominator, and the number of flies produced in four months from one mother as a numerator, we find she will give rise, in the course of a summer, to enough flies to encircle the globe at the equator 5,000 times and have plenty of progeny to spare.—Professor F. L. Washburn in Popular Science Monthly.

Severe. A story is going the rounds at a certain university regarding one of the sarcastic professors, who was recently conducting an oral examination in a very scientific study.

There was one student, handsome, easy and self-possessed, who appeared to be utterly ignorant of the simplest phases of the subject.

Professor W. put question after question to him without receiving one intelligent reply. Finally the student said naively:

"I'm very unfortunate, professor; you never ask me anything I know."

The professor said nothing, but gravely tore off a tiny piece of paper from a convenient pad.

"Here, Mr. B.," he said, handing it to the student, "write all you know. Take plenty of time—there's no hurry."

Well—"She says she gets her good looks from her mother." (Bell—"What a stingy old lady her mother must be.")

Thought It Was Coffee Until Wife Told Him!

ONE day the wife of a prominent Ohio man served Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH instead of coffee for dinner.

Her husband was very particular about his coffee. She didn't say anything about the change.

What was her astonishment as the meal passed and her husband didn't discover a difference.

He simply asked for an extra cup and remarked that "the coffee" was unusually good.

For ten months he drank Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH before he knew it. And then his wife told him!

Fitch's Grains of Health

The Coffee Substitute With the Coffee Taste

is the only substitute for coffee which smells like coffee—tastes like coffee—has all the coffee satisfaction—without a single bad effect of coffee.

People who dare not touch coffee, can drink all they want of Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH. It is good for them. Doctors recommend it.

In Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH a special high-grade blend of coffee is so combined with roots, herbs and vegetables that the caffeine is counteracted. It is a health drink! Try a package today.

Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH is sold by all leading grocers. The price is 30 cents the pound package. It is ground. Ready for use. It is just as easy to prepare as coffee—but only half as much Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH is required as coffee—a teaspoonful to a cup. Therefore it really costs only half as much as good coffee.

If your grocer cannot supply you, write us, mentioning his name, and we will send you a generous sample package of Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH (enough to serve a large family at breakfast) and a booklet telling you all about Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH. Enclose 6 cents in stamps for postage.

ADELPHIAN CANDIDATES INITIATED

Excellent Program Carried Out After Ten Novitiates Were Obligated. News of Granville.

Granville, Oct. 24.—The Adelphian Literary Society began its new year with the initiation of ten new candidates. At the last regular meeting of the society the following program was in the hands of the girls and was admirably carried out: Piano solo, Alice McGuire; Declaration, Louise Hamblin; vocal solo, Helen Ray; short story, Margaret Colwell; Adelphian, Marion Dowkontt; Dela Buckland, Eva Linton.

Cicero started its year with the addition of nineteen men, being Butler, Dilg, Seagrave, Herron, Jordan, Morrill, Dorsey, Spencer, Curtis, Chandler, Hill, Nellis, Hoy, Winans, Speicher, Carson, Ferris, Clark and Woods.

The University Glee club has elected the following persons to membership: First tenor, Millikan; second tenor, Williams and Cox; first bass, J. W. Wolfe, Ralph Morrow; second bass, Lowery.

G. M. Peters of Cincinnati, a member of the university board of trustees, was a recent visitor to Granville and visited the college.

At the last regular meeting of the Calliopean Literary society there was an unusually good attendance of the members, and the following excellent program was carried out: Current Events, M. T. Burnham; speech, G. M. Riley; debate, J. B. Kerschner, P. S. Tracy; extempore, R. R. Weaver.

The Harvest Home service held in the Presbyterian church Sunday was largely attended. The church was nicely decorated with fruits, flowers and vegetables, which made a very nice appearance. The pastor, the Rev. Mr. Newell, preached a very interesting, helpful and appropriate sermon.

Many of the leaves have fallen from the trees, and the man of the house is being kept busy keeping the lawn and sidewalks clean. Of course some of the women take a hand in the work.

Rev. R. B. Stevens of this place, conducted the preaching service at the Nashport Baptist church Sunday evening.

Miss Amelia Booth, a charming young woman of Gallipolis, O., who has been here during the past week, the guest of relatives and friends, returned home Monday, after having had a very pleasant visit.

Miss Anna Solinger, a charming young woman of New Lexington, who has been visiting her friend, Miss Grace Hutchins for several days, has returned home.

FOR AGED PEOPLE

Old Folks Should Be Careful in Their Selection of Regulative Medicine.

We have a safe, dependable and altogether ideal remedy that is particularly adapted to the requirements of aged people and persons of weak constitution who suffer from constipation or other bowel disorders. We are so certain that it will relieve these complaints and give absolute satisfaction in every particular that we offer it with our personal guarantee that it shall cost the user nothing if it fails to substantiate our claims. This remedy is called Rexall Orderlies.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten just like candy, are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night; do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, griping, excessive looseness or other undesirable effects. They have a very mild but positive action upon the organs with which they come in contact, apparently acting as a tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel, thus overcoming weakness, and aiding to restore the bowels to more vigorous and healthy activity. Three sizes, 10c, 25c, and 50c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store, Frank D. Hall, 10 North Side Square.

GIRL DEFIES AUTHORITY

Beautiful Barbara Ladd resented the constant interference of friends, so boldly ran away to work out her own destiny. Read the delightful romance—"Barbara Ladd,"—by Charles G. D. Roberts. Formerly published at $1.50, now FIFTY CENTS, at "Get the Habit"—Norton's Book Store.

MILLERSPORT

Miss Helen Murphy and Mr. Oscar Runkle were married last Thursday by the groom's father, the Rev. J. Runkle at Thornville. They departed for Mansfield on a short wedding trip to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Hutson, uncle and aunt of the bride. They returned on Tuesday evening, when a reception was held at the home of the bride's father, Mr. T. Murphy.

The bell was placed on the Jenny Linn church Friday.

Best results are obtained from hose nozzles six to ten times the hose diameter in length and with the opening one-third of the diameter of the hose.

Young Mothers

No young woman, in the joy of coming motherhood, should neglect to prepare her system for the physical ordeal she is to undergo. The health of both she and her coming child depends largely upon the care she bestows upon herself during the waiting months. Mother's Friend prepares the expectant mother's system for the coming event, and its use makes her comfortable during all the term. It works with and for nature, and by gradually expanding all tissues, muscles and tendons, involved, and keeping the breasts in good condition, brings the woman to the crisis in splendid physical condition. The baby too is more apt to be perfect and strong where the mother has thus prepared herself for nature's supreme function. No better advice could be given a young expectant mother than that she use Mother's Friend; it is a medicine that has proven its value in thousands of cases. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature. BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

AMUSEMENTS

LAST NIGHT'S PLAY.
The Himmlein's Associate Players opened an engagement of a week at the Auditorium theatre on Monday evening, the initial bill being "In the Bishop's Carriage." The play has to do with a woman thief and reminds at times of Leah Kleschna. Miss Besse Dainty, whose name is most appropos, charmingly carried the leading role and was well supported by Mr. Albert Vees, the leading man, and the remainder of the company proved to be well balanced and capable.

The entire play was exceptionally well staged and nicely costumed. Between each act specialties are introduced and several song and dance numbers were well received. Mr. William Newell was exceedingly clever in his lullaby song.

What the Press Agent Says

THE ORPHEUM.
The show at the popular Arcade theatre the first three days of this week is an all around, good one. Every act made good and won much favor with the three large audiences which greeted them Monday. The Arizona Trio has an act that is very entertaining. Every member of the trio is an all around athlete, doing some perfectly marvelous stunts, while as jugglers they proved themselves to be experts. The clown furnished a lot of lightning tumbling. Golden and Golden, the newsboy and the bootblack, have excellent voices and the songs they rendered brought forth much applause. Their comedy is new and original, getting them several good laughs, and as dancers they were pleasing. McBurn and Sherwood, Winchester wizards, offer a very sensational novelty act. Both are crack sharpshooters and proved it very readily, shooting targets from between the teeth and from the tips of the ears. Comedy musical acts are always acceptable and the one presented by Stanley and Scanlon is particularly pleasing. They perform admirably on a number of instruments and Miss Scanlon is a scream in her character impersonations. The Orpheumscope has a feature film.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.
Himmlein's Associate Players, who opened at the Auditorium theatre here Monday evening, pleased the patrons of this popular play house in Channing Pollack's great play, "In the Bishop's Carriage." Miss Besse Dainty, the magnetic little star is fast winning favor, and it is safe to predict that ere the week is out she will be a great favorite. Tonight the company will present for the first time, a four-act comedy drama, entitled, "An Orphan's Prayer." Miss Dainty will be seen as Calamity, a part that affords her an opportunity to display her versatility as well as to display some gorgeous gowns. Each play will be mounted with special scenery and a production is assured for each performance. Miss Dainty and "The Himmlein Players," is the company that had such a successful engagement in Buffalo, N. Y., last season, and incidentally the strongest organization Mr. Himmlein has ever sent on tour. "Thelma," dramatized from Marie Correll's greatest novel will be the offering Wednesday afternoon. Miss Eleanor Glynn's "Three Weeks" will prove a strong attraction, the house being practically sold out.

A recent estimate from a reliable source placed the number of telephones in the world at 9,600,000, on 12,500,000 miles of wire.

THE HERPICIDE GIRL

Says Everyone Can Have Beautiful Hair.

I am really ashamed of some of my girl friends when I look at their hair. There is no sense in having such looking heads. It simply shows that while they may be scrupulously neat in every other way, they are careless about their hair.

Thin, scraggy wispy hair generally indicates dandruff and dandruff is caused by a germ Newbro's Herpicide will kill that germ and keep the scalp as clean and healthy as can be.

This permits the hair to grow naturally and luxuriantly. That terrible itching which goes with dandruff stops with almost the first application.

Substitutes or remedies said to be "just as good" are sometimes offered, but it is better to buy the genuine original germ killer, Newbro's Herpicide. There is no guesswork about that preparation. A trial isn't necessary, just buy a bottle and use it. The results are sure to be better than you expect.

For sale at drug stores. One dollar size bottles are guaranteed. Applications obtained at the better barber shops. Send 10c in postage for sample and book to The Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Mich.

PREDICT A 100 BARREL OIL WELL

Word comes from Crooksville that the new Electric Company's well on the Brown lease, which was shot recently, gives all indications that the well will settle down into a producer of 100 barrels a day, according to the opinion of oil operators, this being a conservative estimate. When the well was shot the oil flowed over the top of the derrick for two hours and great quantities of the fluid were wasted. The Electric has not picked the site of any new wells, but will do so in the near future. Several other companies which had abandoned operations are now discussing the advisability of starting drilling again.

No strike since development work began in the southwest extension of the deep sand territory has attracted so much attention as the Betty Oil Co.'s well on the Bolt Gardner farm, located a half mile north of New Straitsville.

The well was drilled in more than a week ago, and when shot the casing collapsed and had to be replaced. Last Saturday morning, while cleaning out, the well started to flow with great force and lifted the tools 200 feet, where they struck, and they have not as yet been able to jar them loose. The well flowed Saturday at the rate of 23 barrels an hour and is still flowing by heads at the rate of 20 barrels an hour up to the present time.

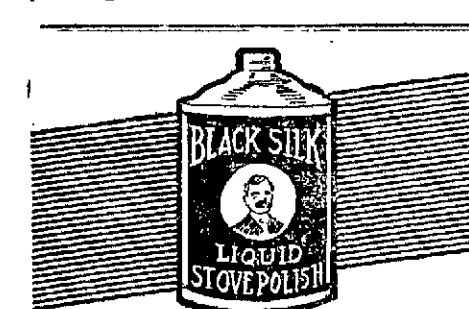

This is the largest well in the New Straitsville field. The next largest is the Hazelton Oil Co.'s No. 2 on the Harrison Hazelton farm, located 1500 feet east of the Bolt Gardner. It was drilled in several weeks ago and had an initial production of 500 barrels and is still holding up at 240 barrels a day.

Within a short time there will be 13 strings of tools at work in the Cambier gas fields. The Ohio Fuel Supply Co. will have five, Upham three, the Logan four and the Mohican one. There were nine strings at work in the immediate vicinity of Cambier Tuesday, but two of these were drilled in and another expected yesterday afternoon. The Ohio Fuel got a light well on the Reuben Woolson lot, in Cambier, Tuesday afternoon, and the Upham company drilled in a fine well on the Thompson Milling Co. grounds yesterday morning. The Upham company drilled in a well on the Crow farm, southwest of Cambier, yesterday, also.

Two important wildcat wells are under way in Coshocton county, directly north from Muskingum county. Both wells are being drilled by the Columbus Gas and Fuel Co., or the Ohio-Rochester Oil and Gas Co., on the Cochrane and Haft farms, in Pike township. Should these two wells develop into producers it will add much territory to the development made, a few months ago, on the Mrs. Isaac Norris farm, a couple of miles south of West Carlisle.

WHY NOT HAVE STRONG NERVES?

Nervous Debility Is Preventable and Curable as This Ohio Case Proves.

Mrs. G. E. Neu, of No. 504 Oak street, Elmwood Place, Ohio, was led to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People by her husband after being in a nervous and run-down condition for over two years. She says:

"It was quite a good while before I was aware that I was suffering from nervous debility for I have always had a strong constitution. Through worry and loss of sleep due to the sickness of my children, I began to notice that I was getting nervous and was always tired. I got so that I would fly to pieces over any excitement and could not bear any noise, even that made by the child taking in playing. I had constant headaches back of my eyes and quite often was dizzy. My hands and feet were always cold and neither friction nor heat would warm them. I had no appetite and could not go upstairs without stopping to rest."

"I was complaining for over two years and often called in the doctor but he didn't help me. My husband had taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People some years before and was constantly urging me to try them. Finally to please him I consented to give the pills a trial. Before I had taken many boxes I felt better and then was only too glad to continue using them. I soon noticed that I could go upstairs without stopping for breath and that my hands and feet were warm. When my friends would ask me what I was taking I never lost a chance to praise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. The pills restored my health and I wonder how any one suffering from a blood or nervous disease, can neglect to take them. I hope my experience with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills may induce others to give them a trial."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are useful in a wide range of cases of the blood and nerves such as rheumatism, after-effects of the grip and fever, neuritis, nervous debility, St. Vitus' dance and even partial paralysis and locomotor ataxia.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are for sale by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Write for a free copy of our "Diseases of the Nervous System."

STARTLING

Richeson to justify the State Attorney of Suffolk county to present the case to a special grand jury without delay.

A startling bit of evidence which has been in the hands of the police for several days, but which has been carefully guarded, leaked out last night and promises to cast additional interest on the case of the Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson, the Baptist minister charged with the murder of Avis Linnell.

When the police gave out the statement of William Hahn, the Newton druggist, where the Cambridge pastor is alleged to have bought the cyanide of potassium, the drug that caused the death of the Linnell girl, they said the pastor had asked Hahn for a poison that "would kill a dog at his home which was about to give birth to puppies."

Last night it is stated on authority that druggist Hahn added another sentence to a conversation he claims to have had with Richeson, and that the minister also said:

"I want a poison that will kill the puppies without killing the dog."
Druggist Hahn declared, it is said, that he stated that he knew of no medicine or drug which would do this. The police attach considerable importance to this version of the conversation.

One perplexing problem confronting the prosecution is the apparently long time the cyanide of potassium acted before it caused Miss Linnell's death. The medical examiner, Dr. Timothy E. Leary, in his report declared the death ensued 25 minutes after the taking of the poison. To the police this seems strange, as cyanide is supposed to cause instant death.

Various theories are advanced for the seeming inconsistency. One is that an overdose of the poison acted as its own emetic. Another is that the poison had deteriorated through chemical action. This matter will be ascertained by an analysis of the cyanide of potassium in the Hahn drug store to see if that purchased by the minister had lost its strength.

Richeson is defiant, and with the aid of the counsel employed by the wealthy Edmonds family is working day and night in his cell to establish a defense that will clear him of the allegations set up by the police.

So confident are the police that they have secured sufficient evidence to insure the indictment of Richeson that District Attorney Pelletier was brought into the case. Chief Dugan and Medical Examiner Leary, who performed the autopsy on Avis Linnell, spent the entire afternoon yesterday with the County Prosecutor.

The result was an announcement that the evidence against Richeson will be placed before a special grand jury on Thursday of this week.

This action was a complete surprise to the lawyers retained for the defense of the pastor. His hearing was set down for October 31, the day on which he was to have been married to Violet Edmonds.

If the indictment is returned as expected, Richeson will merely be brought into court on the day set for the hearing and be re-arrested. The prosecution will, by this clever move, not be compelled to show its strength on that occasion.

The mysterious movements about the Edmonds mansion on Chestnut Hill this afternoon indicated that Miss Edmonds the affianced bride of Richeson, was being hurried away from Boston. Friends of the family state that she is in a critical state of mind, but it could not be established definitely that she had gone.

Early in the day a telegraph messenger was summoned to the Hotel Bellevue by a man, who is believed to have been Moses G. Edmonds, and given an envelope containing two railroad tickets from Boston to Chicago with instructions to deliver them to the Edmonds residence. The messenger did so, taking the receipt of Miss Edna Robinson, a maid. Through the windows of the mansion a uniformed nurse could be seen flitting from room to room.

Later in the day a closed carriage drove up. From it alighted a veiled young woman attired in black. She carried a leather suit case.

A yesterday afternoon the family coachman drove to the door again. Two women both heavily veiled, and with suit cases, left the house and entered the carriage, which was driven in the direction of the Boston and Albany station at Newtonville. One of the women is believed to have been Miss Edmonds.

"I am ready for my breakfast, and, by the way, bring me all the newspapers." This was the greeting to the guard given by Richeson at the Charles Street jail.

The young minister arose early yesterday donned a dark business suit, which had been brought to the jail by his prospective father-in-law, Moses G. Edmonds, and combed his hair very carefully. He requested the guard to get his breakfast from other than the prison kitchen, which is a privilege arranged by Moses G. Edmonds.

"Get me some toast, eggs and hot milk, and remember to bring to me all the papers."

Mr. Edmonds, who had come to see Richeson earlier in the day, made a second visit to the jail shortly after noon, but declined to enter into a discussion of the case further than to say: "The newspapers are printing horrible lies about this young man and I do not intend to desert him."

Richeson's declaration of innocence was made public by Rev. George H. H. Edmonds, who engaged to Miss Rose Edmonds, sister of Miss Violet, was announced simultaneously with that of Mr. Richeson. Mr. Holt said he was pledged not to divulge anything else that his brother of the ministry had told him.

"Mr. Richeson is not the mental and physical wreck that he has been pictured," said Mr. Holt. "His fortitude under such distressing circumstances amazed me. I am sure that no man with the burden of guilt on his mind could stand up under such a strain as he does. Personally I am convinced of his innocence, although he has not discussed his case with anyone except his lawyers."

Without the aid of Millionaire Edmonds, Richeson, it is stated, would be unable to pay a lawyer to defend him, but he has refused a cash offer of $1,000 for a 500-word signed statement of his case.

Philip R. Dunbar, the attorney, engaged in preparing the defense, was with Richeson more than three hours just before the close of the day. After leaving the jail he refused to outline the plan of defense. From an individual closely associated with those interested, however, it was learned that the following temporary plan had been formulated.

Mrs. Moses G. Edmonds and other members of her family will make affidavits that Richeson was at their home all of the Saturday afternoon, part of which the police assert he spent with Avis Linnell, the Hyannis girl.

Another man will probably be brought into the case. It may be alleged that the man had more reason and a better opportunity to give Miss Linnell the poison than Mr. Richeson.

Detectives are scouring Hyannis in search of evidence that Avis Linnell's character was other than it has been reputed.

Later last night the police learned that Mr. Richeson had in his possession several prescriptions written by a Cambridge physician and all of which were filled in a drug store near his home.

The prescriptions had a direct bearing on the conditions revealed by the autopsy on Avis Linnell. It is said to have been established by the police that Miss Linnell received at least a portion of that medicine.

It will be alleged that Richeson's engagement with Avis Linnell had been broken off, and that he met her as a friend because she was in trouble for which he was not responsible.

Miss Jessie Cora Chamberlain, a literary worker of Brookline, has started a movement among the women who know Richeson to gather evidence for his defense.

It was learned authoritatively today based on the ground of "reasonable doubt." Ten distinct grounds will be advanced, among the most important being: First, Richeson admitted he was engaged to Avis Linnell at the time he fell in love with Violet Edmonds, the heiress; Richeson withstood to show that when he left Hyannis Miss Linnell was sequestered to breaking off the engagement; third, he will deny any improper relations with Miss Linnell or any knowledge of her physical condition; fourth he will admit buying cyanide of potassium from Hahn but will deny that he made any statements accredited to him. He will try to establish an alibi for his movements on the Saturday that Avis Linnell met her death.

The fellow who wears a silk hat shouldn't butt in.

Myers' high fly dropped safely between Baker, Bender and Thomas, but Fletcher was thrown out at second Thomas to Collins. Mathewson rolled an easy grounder to Bender and was out at first. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Athletics: Murphy drove the ball over the temporary fence in right field for a two-base hit. It was the first hit he had made during the series. Murphy took a long lead off second and Mathewson in attempting to catch him made a wild throw to Fletcher. Murphy taking third. Davis dropped an easy one in front of the plate and was thrown out at first. Murphy attempted to steal home, but was run down by Myers, unassisted. Barry made an infield single. On the attempted hit and run play, Thomas fouled to Myers. No runs, two hits, one error.

Third Inning.
New York: Devore lifted a fly to Oldring. Doyle hit a high one between home and third base, which Baker took care of. Snodgrass hit a bouncer to Barry and was out at first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Philadelphia: Bender was thrown out at first, Fletcher to Merkle. Lord hit the first ball pitched to right field for a single. He was forced a moment later, Fletcher to Doyle, on Oldring's grounder. Collins struck out on three pitched balls. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fourth Inning.
New York: Murray lifted a fly to Baker. Merkle, after fouling off the half a dozen balls, struck out for the second time. Herzog grounded toward first base, but was out by Davis, unassisted. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Philadelphia: Baker doubled to left center. He was given a great cheer. Baker scored on Murphy's double to left. It was one and one, a man on second and none out. Murphy scored on Davis' double to right. There was a conference and Marquand and Ames were both sent down to right field to warm up. Davis reached third on Barry's hit to Herzog. Barry was out at first. Davis came home on Thomas' fly to Murray. This put the Athletics in the lead, 3 to 2. Bender was out at first on a sensational pickup and throw by Fletcher. Three runs, three hits, no errors.

Fifth Inning.
New York: On a wonderful pickup and throw on a slow grounder, Fletcher was retired at first, Baker to Davis. Myers drove the ball to right field for two bases. On a short pitched ball Myers attempted to take third, but was out on a throw, Thomas to Baker. Mathewson was given his base on balls, the first of the game. Devore raised a fly to Lord and was an easy out. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Philadelphia: Lord was out at first on an easy grounder, Merkle to Mathewson. Herzog made a pretty stop of Oldring's hard grounder and got the runner at first. Collins drove a single to right field and Baker came to the plate. On the first ball pitched he hit to right center for a double, scoring Collins. Baker took third on the throw in. Murphy struck out. One run, two hits, no errors.

Sixth Inning.
New York: Doyle was given his base on balls. Snodgrass was called out on strikes, not hitting at a single ball. On Murray's foul fly to Baker, Doyle was doubled up at first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Barry reached third on Thomas' roller to Fletcher. Thomas died at first. Herzog threw Bender out at first. No runs, one hit, no errors.

The Athletics had hit Mathewson for ten hits while the Indian had held New York to four.

Seventh Inning.
New York: Merkle struck out for the third time. Herzog lifted a high fly to Oldring and sat down. Fletcher drove a single to center. Chief Myers was an easy out. Collins to Davis. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Baker again stepped to the plate. Four wide ones in succession were given the Athletics' third baseman, and he walked. Murphy drove a hard grounder to Merkle and was out. No runs, no hits, one error.

Eighth Inning.
New York: Becker went in to bat for Mathewson. Becker was thrown out, Collins to Davis, on an easy chance. Devore drove a single to left and Captain Doyle stepped to the plate. His hit to Collins forced Devore to second, Barry getting the put out. Baker momentarily fumbled Snodgrass' hard grounder and the runner was safe at first. Murray lifted a high foul which Thomas took care of. No runs, one hit, one error.

Philadelphia: Wittse went into the box for the Giants. Captain Davis retired on three pitched balls. Barry doubled to right and went to third on Fletcher's miff of Murray's return of the ball, which was a trifle high. Fletcher not being able to reach the throw. The demonstration herd will be just such as is found on thousands of farms in the United States. It will be fed by ex-

WHAT I WENT THROUGH

Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Natick, Mass.—"I cannot express what I went through during the change of life before I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in such a nervous condition I could not keep still. My limbs were cold, I had creepy sensations, and I could not sleep nights. I was finally told by two physicians that I also had a tumor. I read one day of the wonderful cures made by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. My neighbors and friends declare it had worked a miracle for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth its weight in gold for women during this period of life. If it will help others you may publish my letter."—Mrs. NATHAN E. GLEATON, 61 N. Main Street, Natick, Mass.

The Change of Life is the most critical period of a woman's existence. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

What's The Matter With Your Baby?

The young mother—and many an old one, too—is often puzzled to know the cause of her child's ill nature. The loudness of its crying does not necessarily indicate the seriousness of its trouble. It may have nothing more than the matter with it than a headache or a feeling of general dullness. It cannot, of course, describe its feelings, but as a preliminary measure you are safe in trying a mild laxative.

Nine times out of ten, you will find it all the child needs, for its restlessness and nervousness are perhaps due to obstruction of the bowels, and once that has been remedied, the headache, the restlessness and the many other evidences of constipation and indigestion will quickly disappear.

Don't give the little one salts, cathartic pills or nary war of these will act as purgatives, and they are too strong for a child. In the families of parts, and every step in connection with the management will be explained. The demonstration will illustrate the most common mistakes in the feeding and management of a dairy herd, and will also attempt to show how these mistakes may be remedied. Trials will be conducted to show the relative economy of different rations and the results that follow when all the cows in a herd are fed alike. It will show why each cow should be fed according to her production.

Mrs. M. A. Wisner, West Unity, Ohio, and Mrs. Herman Wilson, Stouffville, Ohio, the only native given in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It has been found to answer most perfectly all the purposes of a laxative, and its very mildness and freedom from gripping action make it especially for the use of children, women, and old folks generally—people who need a gentle bowel stimulant. Thousands of American families have been enthusiastic about it for more than a quarter of a century. Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home, free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 405 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

The value of record keeping will be illustrated by the actual records, the milk from each cow being weighed daily, the weights of all feeds consumed recorded and the cost of same charged to the individual cow.

The amount of butter fat produced by each cow will also be kept. Various kinds of modern stable equipment will be seen in use. Perhaps no work of the dairy farm has been given less attention than the matter of proper milking. This will be amply illustrated by lectures, demonstrations, and actual tests.

Several lectures will be given daily by men prominent in dairying. The selection of the dairy cow by her conformation will be explained. Any dairy farmer after he has seen this Government exhibit at the National Dairy Show, can apply on his own home farm the principles or methods governing the demonstration. They work for economy and efficiency, saving money in feed, yet getting more milk from your cows. The cost of the trip to Chicago is as nothing when compared with the annual saving easily possible on the average American farm.

NEW WRIGHT AEROPLANE DISABLED

Kitty Hawk, N. C., Oct. 21.—The new Wright aeroplane flown by Orville Wright and equipped with the new Wright stabilizer, turned a complete somersault in the air yesterday, the aviator escaping by acrobatic skill.

The glider was disabled but not so badly that it cannot be repaired again for flights today or Wednesday.

The accident was the second the machine has met with since the present experiments were begun.
Wright had made one short glide and was essaying a second when the glider began to turn over slowly in a cross-wind. The aviator scrambled nimbly over the machine as it turned, with the result that he was on top of it when it dived to the earth bottom side up, and so escaped with a slight shaking up.

The real purpose of the experiments here is to safeguard air travel through a new mechanism designed to keep an aeroplane on an even keel.
Their contrivance utilizes ailerons or small flaps attached to the main plane. The flopping of one of these counteracts the other when an aeroplane is buffeted in the breeze. The Wright device applies this principle with a pendulum, which, hanging into space and operating the ailerons up and down, is expected to restore a machine's stability.

STENOGRAPHER TAKES SHOT AT EX-SWEETHEART

Huntington, W. Va., Oct. 24.—
Driven into a frenzy by jealousy over her alleged betrayal by Dr. J. E.
McDonald, a physician of Logan and former member of the state legislature, Miss Addie Cook, a pretty young stenographer, fired three bullets at the physician, one of the missiles passing through the doctor's right lung, causing a serious wound.

Miss Cook was lodged in jail, as it was at first thought Dr. McDonald's wound would prove fatal, but she was released on $5000 bonds latter, to await a preliminary hearing.

Her uncle, Anthony Cook, one of the wealthiest land owners of the Guyan Valley, went on her bond. Her only remark was that she would do it over again if she got the opportunity. She made no denial of the shooting, but refused to give any reason for her action.

The cause of the shooting on which the authorities are proceeding is that Miss Cook went to the office of Dr. McDonald and quarreled with him. They are known to have been old sweethearts and the police believe love affairs caused the trouble.

It is declared that Miss Cook was ejected from the office by the physician and that she, enraged at this treatment, shot the doctor.

She fired through a glass door
after he had returned to his office.

Dr. McDonald is a prominent Democratic leader in Southern West Virginia. He is a bachelor of 40.

Miss Cook is the daughter of a prominent Wyoming county family and has been working at Logan for several years as a stenographer.

Beware of Quackery for Catarrh That Contains Mercury.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such quackeries should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure, be sure you get the genuine. It is sold internally and made in Toledo, Ohio by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by Druggists. Price, 75c. per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

IDA CONQUEST IS MARRIED.

Boston, Oct. 21.—Miss Ida Conquest, the actress, was married here to Riccardo Bertelli, president of an art bronze company of New York and son of the late Admiral Luigi Ber-telli of the Italian navy. The ceremony was performed by the Rev.
Alexander Mann, rector of Trinity church, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Conquest of Brookline.

Copenhagen.—A jolting crowd gathered at the home of a big police detective had to escort them to their hotel.
The authorities, however, said the doctor may be seen on the North Pole.

ELEVEN SONS OF HATFIELD CONVERTED

Huntington, W. Va., Oct. 24.—
Standing over the biers of their two brothers, Elias and Troy Hatfield, who were shot and killed by an Italian in Fayette county a few days ago, 11 stalwart sons of "Devil Anse" Hatfield, noted feud leader, who recently professed religion, responded to the pleadings of their aged parent, embraced religion, and pledged themselves to lead better lives.

Every member of the noted feud family was at home to attend the double funeral. Troy and Elias Hatfield, the victims of the Italian, were two of 13 brothers. Every one of these boys was trained in his youth to be prepared to bring about, if necessary, the extermination of the McCoy clan.

The bodies of Troy and Elias Hatfield were taken back to their old home in Logan county for burial and "Uncle Dyke" Garrett, the veteran mountain preacher who led "Devil Anse" to the mourners' bench, was summoned to conduct the double funeral.

When they saw their brothers cold in death and heard the final benedic-tions pronounced over them, sorrow filled the hearts of the surviving brothers and they together went forward and made a public confession of faith in the God of their mother, and, more recently, of their father, as well. The mother of 11 converts has long been a member of the church.

Among the brothers were "Cap," who in the days of the feuds was the necessity of a name feared throughout all the mountains; Bob, John, Dr.
Elias, Tennessee, Johnson, Floyd and Boe.
"Uncle Dyke" is to baptize the Hatfield boys in the near future. A special day is to be set for the baptism.

SYRIAN'S CASE IS CONTINUED

John Jabot, the Syrian who is charged with assault, complainant being Mrs. Carrie Pratt, was given a preliminary hearing before Mayor Ankele Tuesday morning in police court. He secured the services of Attorney L. C. Russell to defend him and on account of this attorney's connection with the trial of Walter Diehl in common pleas court, the case was not concluded. Mayor Ankele continued it until Thursday. Mrs. Pratt offered her testimony and a portion of the defendant's story was taken, but he did not finish. He is still in jail, not being able to furnish bond.

Berlin—Pressed to explain to the Reichstag why living costs so much in Germany, Chancellor Bethmann-Hollweg said today a standard of comfort is higher than ever before and must be paid for.

New York—To "have some fun," Francis Butler, 12, brought his father's revolver to school. The teacher and pupils scattered when they saw it and it took a policeman to restore order.

GRAY HAIR MAKES YOU LOOK OLD

Use Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and Your Gray Hair Will Quickly
Vanish.

Gray hair is a mark of age and nothing that can be said as to its beauty will affect the disadvantages of this mark of age set upon your brow.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy restores the hair and restores it to its youthful beauty. Our grandmothers and their grandmothers before them used sage and sulphur for darkening their hair. Nothing has ever been found more effective for this purpose than these two time honored remedies, but Wyeth, a modern chemist, has combined the two with other ingredients which makes a delightful dressing for the hair, and which not only removes every trace of dandruff, but promotes the growth of the hair. It also stops the hair from falling out and makes it beautiful.

All druggists are authorized to refund the money if it fails to do exactly as represented.

Don't neglect your hair and don't resort to old-time hair dyes. Get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist today, and notice the difference in your hair after a few days' use.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.
